GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS
COASTAL PLAIN JR. LIVESTOCK SHOW AND SALE

GENERAL RULES

1. Age: Exhibitors must be 21 years of age or under as of JANUARY 1 and enrolled in high school, home school, a junior college, or a four year college to participate. Exhibitors must be a minimum of 5 years old to show steer/heifers. Exhibitors under 5 are only eligible to show in the Rookie Class. All exhibitors (other than Rookies) are required to show alone.

2. A waiver signed by the exhibitor, their parent or guardian, and Cooperative Extension Agent must be sent with entry sheet to the Lenoir County Extension Office to be kept on file. Without this waiver they cannot participate in the CPLS&S. One waiver per exhibitor is needed and can be obtained from the local Extension Office.

3. Counties eligible to participate are Carteret, Craven, Duplin, Greene, Jones, Lenoir, Onslow, Pender, Pitt, Sampson, and Wayne.

4. The CPLS&S Rules Committee reserves the right to drug test livestock for inappropriate use of drugs. The Rules Committee's decision to test must require a quorum (50% of the total membership plus one). Any testing will be at the expense of the CPLS&S. Appropriate testing will be done by a qualified veterinarian.

5. It is the responsibility of parents and exhibitors to follow withdrawal periods of all antibiotics, vaccines, and other medicines. CPLS&S management assumes no liability or responsibility with packers or enforcement officials.

6. The CPLS&S Committee wants to assure the buyers and the public that all has been done within our power to produce healthy and high quality foods. For this reason, all youth (or their parents/guardians for 8 & under) must be certified in Pork Quality Assurance. Participants are responsible for making sure they attend a training by a certified instructor.

7. Exhibitors assume liability for their animals in case of sickness, death, or injury until the animal is sold. Buyers assume all responsibility at the time of sale.

8. A 3% assessment, not to exceed more than $20 per entry, will be deducted from each exhibitor's check to cover sale expenses, prizes, and catalogs.

9. Assessments will be deducted from each exhibitor's check as required by the National Pork Producers' Council, National Cattlemen's Beef Association, and the American Lamb Board.

10. All animals must arrive on Monday. All market hogs must be in the arena no later than 10:00 a.m. Steers, heifers, lambs, and kids must be in the arena no later than 12:00 p.m. No animals will be accepted for weigh-in before Monday.

11. In showmanship classes, exhibitors must show their own animal and must show alone.

12. Each exhibitor will be allowed to sell for premium one animal of each species that they have entered.

13. Due to the risk of foreign animal disease, any exhibitor, or any exhibitors whose family member or visitor to the farm, has traveled internationally during the 14 days prior to animal check-in, should voluntarily withdraw their animals from the show and not attend.
SALE RULES

14. An exhibitor that has the Grand or Reserve Champion Pen of Three may not sell an individual hog unless it is Grand or Reserve Champion.

15. Female animals—does, ewes, and heifers will not be sold for premium or slaughter.

16. An exhibitor may only sell one animal per species, the exception being if a child has grand and reserve champion in a species, and pen of three hogs. Support money from the “pool” will only be available for one animal per child.

17. Every child that sells an animal must turn in a record book—available at the Extension office. All premium money is withheld until record books are turned in.

18. In order to sell an animal for premium money in the auction, the exhibitor MUST BE PRESENT. This must be the child that will receive the money, not a representative. All Grand and Reserve Champion animals must be sold in the auction.

19. Exhibitors have the option of putting steers, goats, and lambs up for deck prices (to be sold for slaughter). An agreement must be signed designating the intentions of the exhibitor. If no deck price is secured for these animals, the exhibitor is responsible for the removal of the animal. Please see page 10 for details. The exhibitor is still allowed to bring the animal through the sale ring for premium money only.

The following age brackets are represented in the Show.

Cooperative Extension staff will lead this activity. The Overall Grand Champion and Reserve Champion Individual of the show will be selected from the first and second place winners in each weight division. The Grand Champion and Reserve Champion Pen of Three of the show will be selected from the first and second place winners in each weight division.
