GENERAL RULES

1. If a rule is broken, the Coastal Plains Jr. Livestock Show and Sale Committee reserves the right to impose appropriate consequences on participants or their family as the need arises.
2. There is ZERO tolerance for willful abuse or neglect of any animal. Incidences of abuse will be referred to and ruled on by the show committee. This includes treatment of animals outside the show ring, overuse of show sticks, whips, or other actions in the show ring that would cause an animal undue stress or harm. Punishment could include removing the participant from the event at any time.
3. Sportsmanlike conduct is expected of participants and anyone in the participants party (family, friends, coaches, etc). Incidences of un-sportsmanlike conduct will be referred to and ruled on by the show committee. There will be zero tolerance for any participant or anyone in the participants party to disrespect the judge or anyone on the show committee. Punishment could include removing the participant from the event at any time.
4. Age: Exhibitors must be 21 years of age or under as of JANUARY 1 and enrolled in high school, home school, a junior college, or a four year college to participate. Exhibitors must be a minimum of 5 years old to show steer/heifers. Exhibitors under 5 are only eligible to show in the Rookie Class. All exhibitors (other than Rookies) are required to show alone.
5. A waiver signed by the exhibitor, their parent or guardian, and Cooperative Extension Agent must be sent with entry sheet to the Lenoir County Extension Office to be kept on file. Without this waiver they cannot participate in the CPLS&S. One waiver per exhibitor is needed and can be obtained from the local Extension Office.
6. Counties eligible to participate in Market classes are Carteret, Craven, Cumberland, Duplin, Greene, Jones, Lenoir, Onslow, Pamlico, Pender, Pitt, and Sampson. Breeding animal classes (heifers, ewe, doe, gilt) are open to any exhibitor from any county.
7. The CPLS&S Rules Committee reserves the right to drug test livestock for inappropriate use of drugs. The Rules Committee's decision to test must require a quorum. Any testing will be at the expense of the CPLS&S. Appropriate testing will be done by a qualified veterinarian.
8. It is the responsibility of parents and exhibitors to follow withdrawal periods of all antibiotics, vaccines, and other medicines. CPLS&S management assumes no liability or responsibility with packers or enforcement officials.
9. The CPLS&S Committee wants to assure the buyers and the public that all has been done within our power to produce healthy and high quality foods. For this reason, all youth (or their parents/guardians for 8 & under) must be certified in Pork Quality Assurance. Participants are responsible for making sure they attend a training by a certified instructor.
10. Exhibitors assume liability for their animals in case of sickness, death, or injury until the animal is sold. Buyers assume all responsibility at the time of sale.
11. A 3% assessment, not to exceed more than $20 per entry, will be deducted from each exhibitor's check to cover sale expenses, prizes, and catalogs.

12. Assessments will be deducted from each exhibitor's check as required by the National Pork Producers' Council, National Cattlemen's Beef Association, and the American Lamb Board.
13. In showmanship classes, exhibitors must show their own animal and must show alone.
14. Due to the risk of foreign animal disease, any exhibitor, or any exhibitors whose family member or visitor to the farm, has traveled internationally during the 14 days prior to animal check-in, should voluntarily withdraw their animals from the show and not attend.
15. Animals must be on the farm and under the care of the exhibitor by the time the paperwork is due on February 14. Animals will be inspected by Extension Agents and/or CPLS&S Committee Members by March 1. Tags for hogs will be distributed as requested or when Agents inspect animals.

These dangers and risks include, but are not limited to, loss of or damage to personal property, strains, sprains, bruises, heat exhaustion, and other personal injuries, or even death, that could result from tripping, falling, contact with other individuals, and equipment failure, among other causes. I assume responsibility for all risks, known and unknown, involving the Minor’s participation in the aforementioned activities, and I voluntarily authorize the Minor’s participation in reliance upon my own judgment and knowledge of the Minor’s experience and capabilities.

Additionally, I understand that the coronavirus (“COVID-19”) has been declared a worldwide pandemic by the World Health Organization and has become more widespread, including within North Carolina. I represent that I am acting on my behalf or as the parent or legal guardian of the Minor and I have authority to enter this Agreement. I also represent that the Minor is in proper physical and other condition to participate in the Program. I understand that it is my sole responsibility to determine whether the Minor is sufficiently fit and healthy enough to participate in the Program, and if necessary, I will consult with the Minor’s physician for appropriate guidance.

I understand that the Minor and I are required to be familiar with and abide by the Program’s rules and regulations, including the 4-H Code of Conduct and/or the NC 4-H Volunteer Standard of Behavior and any safety regulations established for the benefit of all participants.
